42ND Annual American Institute on Federal Taxation

EMBASSY SUITES HOTEL
Hoover, Alabama
June 27-29, 2018

Regions Private Wealth Management is proud to support the 42ND Annual American Institute on Federal Taxation
Dear Colleague:

On behalf of the American Institute on Federal Taxation, it is a pleasure to extend to you our personal invitation to the 42nd Annual Institute, which will be held on Wednesday, June 27 through Friday, June 29 at the Embassy Suites Hotel in Hoover, Alabama.

Our 2018 program includes many of the best speakers in the country. It has been a tradition of the AIFT to provide the highest caliber tax program presenting and explaining the latest tax strategies, updates, legislative forecasts, and planning techniques. The goal of the Institute is to provide you with the resources and information you need to best serve your clients.

For your convenience, a registration form is available within this brochure. You may also register online at amfedtax.org or by phone at (205) 348-3000. Once registration and payment are received, you will receive an e-mail confirming your registration. For more information, please contact Pamela Harvey at pharvey@ccs.ua.edu or Emily Townsend at ehtownsend@ccs.ua.edu.

The Board of Trustees looks forward to seeing you at the 42nd Annual American Institute on Federal Taxation.

Sincerely yours,

Henry H. Hutchinson & Myra S. Roberts
AIFT Co-Chairs
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 27, 2018

7:30  REGISTRATION AND CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

MORNING SESSION – Henry H. Hutchinson, Co-Chair, Presiding

8:30  Current Issues with Retirement Benefits – The presentation will cover various issues faced by tax professionals in dealing with retirement benefits. These include the confusing array of retirement plans, issues with the tax treatment of qualified plans and individual retirement accounts, challenges with nonpublicly traded IRA benefits, self-dealing rules and the impact on IRA investments, the payout rules, avoiding the least favorable beneficiary rule with a trust, beneficiary designations to preserve special account treatment, understanding rollovers, inherited account rollovers, charitable planning with retirement benefits, and issues with Roth IRAs.

Charles D. Fox, IV, McGuire Woods LLP; Charlottesville, VA

9:30  COFFEE BREAK

9:45  Charitable Traps and Opportunities in Tax and Estate Planning - The presenter will provide a practical presentation on traps and opportunities in the charitable planning, including: understanding how the charitable deductions for trusts and estate differ significantly from the deduction for individuals, how planners should approach charitable planning after Tax Reform, using trusts to replace the repealed alimony deduction, how tax basis impacts charitable deductions and unexpected traps for the unwary in charitable planning.

John J. Scroggin, Scroggin & Company; Roswell, GA

10:45  COFFEE BREAK

11:00  Income Tax Considerations in Estate/Trust Settlements and Modifications - This presentation will review income tax issues produced as a result of settlement agreements involving family controversies associated with estates and trusts. This will include a discussion of income tax basis issues for property received pursuant to a court or non-court settlement of contested issues, income tax issues associated with estate/trust settlement involving life insurance, as well as income tax and estate tax issues associated with trust modifications under the Uniform Trust Code. The presenter will look at specific common problems produced by early trust terminations as well as modifications and discuss possible tax savings techniques. The presenter will look at tax issues associated with both court approved settlements and Non-judicial Settlement Agreements under the Uniform Trust Code.

A. Stephen McDaniel, Williams McDaniel, PLLC; Memphis, TN

12:00  LUNCH ON YOUR OWN

AFTERNOON SESSION – Paul W. Frederick, Presiding Trustee

1:00  Post Mortem Tax Planning – This presentation will cover the following topics: protecting the fiduciary, estate's fiscal year election, administration expense election, alternate valuation election, Section 643(e) election, portability, QTIP election, qualified domestic trusts, disclaimers, death of a partner, S corporation stock, Section 645 election, Section 6166 deferral of estate tax and generation skipping tax elections, and more.

Jeremiah W. Doyle, IV, BNY Wealth Management; Boston, MA

2:00  COFFEE BREAK
2:15 All The Fun We Are Having Now: Reflections on Current Planning Opportunities and Recent Developments with a Special Emphasis on Generating New Basis – In this special double session, the presenters will cover recent developments of interest to estate planners in 2017 and 2018, with a particular focus on current planning strategies that are appropriate in an era of $11 million+ exemptions from wealth transfer taxation. Shuffling assets within families to achieve maximum basis step up opportunities is an important opportunity our presenters will review. Other topics of current interest to be addressed, time permitting, include FLPs, portability, decanting and grantor trusts.
Charles A. Redd, Stinson Leonard Street, LLP; St. Louis, MO
Turney P. Berry, Wyatt Tarrant & Combs LLP; Louisville, KY

THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 2018

7:30 CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

MORNING SESSION – Mark E. Hieronymus, Presiding Trustee

8:30 Recent Income Tax Developments – This presentation will highlight significant court decisions, rulings, and statutory and regulatory developments affecting taxpayers over the past twelve months.
Cassady V. Brewer, Georgia State University College of Law; Atlanta, GA

9:30 COFFEE BREAK

9:45 The Taxation of Timber as Relating to Non-Industrial Private Landowners - Timber and timberland resources have been foundational to economic development from the establishment of the original colonies until today. Income, gift and estate tax policy and administration significantly affect the ownership and utilization of this valuable resource. The presentation will explore the building blocks of basis, reforestation, depletion, silvicultural expenditures and depreciation as it applies to Timber and Timberland as business, investment and hobby activities and the taxation of each. It will also review the application of Sections 199A, 631, 194, 1031 and others and review challenges in estate and gift transfers.
Henry I. Barclay, III, CPA, Lehmann, Ullman and Barclay, LLP; Birmingham, AL

10:45 COFFEE BREAK

11:00 International Tax Primer – This presentation’s areas of focus include willful and non-willful FBAR violations, expansion of foreign asset reporting duties to domestic entities, audits of taxpayers who ceased participation in voluntary disclosure programs, new obligations for minors with foreign accounts, implementation of FATCA weapons, deprivation of U.S. passports for tax debtors, automatic penalties for late international information returns, and a compliance initiative targeting foreign investors holding U.S. rental property. This presentation gives practical advice on the most pressing international tax issues.
Hale E. Sheppard, Chamberlain, Hrdlicka, White, Williams & Aughtry; Atlanta, GA

12:00 LUNCHEON PROVIDED BY AIFT (BY RSVP ONLY AT TIME OF REGISTRATION)
AFTERNOON SESSION – Blake A. Madison, Presiding Trustee

1:00  Tax Reform and Pass-Through Entities - It is a brand new world for the taxation of pass-through entities in light of changes made by tax reform. This session will focus on the 20% deduction for qualified business income, but also will provide information relating to the taxation of carried interests, application of rules limiting the deductibility of interest, elimination of technical terminations, lower corporate rates, and other items. All of these items will change the way we must analyze operating in partnership form going forward.
James B. Sowell, KPMG LLP; Washington, DC

2:30  COFFEE BREAK

2:45  Current Developments in Partnerships and Real Estate, including like-kind Exchanges - This session reviews current developments in partnership and real estate, with particular focus on applicable provisions of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act.
Sara E. Ralph, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP; Chicago, IL

3:45  COFFEE BREAK

4:00  Alabama Tax Developments - Federal Tax Reform is reverberating through the Alabama tax system leaving taxpayers and the State with a host of questions to address. The Spring 2018 legislative session will be concluded having addressed a number of tax issues but no doubt deferring other more significant issues for another (non-election?) year. Joe, Curtis and James will consider the impact of Federal Tax Reform and again provide an update on what legislation passed and what did not, as well as other recent state tax developments that impact Alabama businesses and their advisers. Recent announcements and rulings issued by the Alabama Department of Revenue will also be reviewed, followed by questions and answers.
James E. Long Jr., Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP; Birmingham, AL; Joe W. Garrett, Jr. and Curtis E. Stewart, Alabama Department of Revenue; Montgomery, AL

5:15  QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

5:30  RECESS

FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 2018

7:30  CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

MORNING SESSION – R. Eugene Clenney Jr., Presiding Trustee

8:30  Tax Reform Reality: Tax Planning Under the New Law - The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act was signed into law in a flurry of activity at the end of last year. What does the tax overhaul mean for you? What opportunities does this new law present? Whether you are accumulating and managing your wealth, drawing on your savings in retirement or transferring wealth to the next generation, the new law will impact your goals and how you plan and manage your wealth to achieve your aims. Join us to learn more.
Suzanne L. Shier, Northern Trust; Chicago, IL

9:30  Identifying and Addressing Conflicts of Interest and Ethical Issues in Today’s Tax Practices - Conflicts of interest and other ethical issues frequently arise when representing clients before the IRS in audits and civil or criminal tax controversies. Failure to identify and properly address such issues can result in a host of problems. Using hypotheticals, ethical issues that arise in tax practices, the applicable rules and standards, and best practices will be reviewed.
Caroline D. Ciraolo, Kostelanetz & Fink, LLP; Washington, DC

10:30  COFFEE BREAK

10:45  Top Ten Tax Traps and How to Deal With Them - From claims for refund with omitted arguments or failure to timely contest denials, through limitations extensions that lead to larger deficiencies, to missed elections, inadequate disclosures and other dangerous practice problems, the presenter will cover the best ways to deal with the things that keep you awake at night.
David D. Aughtry, Chamberlain, Hrdlicka, White, Williams & Aughtry; Atlanta, GA

12:00  ADJOURNED
THE SPEAKERS

DAVID D. AUGTRY – David Aughtry is the managing partner in the Atlanta Office of Chamberlain, Hrdlicka, White, Williams and Aughtry. Mr. Aughtry practices in the area of civil tax controversy. Mr. Aughtry taught tax controversy as an Adjunct Professor at Emory University School of Law and served as an instructor for the National Institute for Trial Advocacy, “Litigating before the United States Tax Court” program. He is a Fellow in the International Society of Barristers and in the American College of Tax Counsel. Mr. Aughtry has served as the president and chairman of the Southern Federal Tax Institute.

HENRY I. BARCLAY, III – Henry Barclay is the managing partner of Lehmann, Ullman and Barclay LLP. The Firm has been involved in timber related services almost since its inception in 1912. He attended Tulane University and was graduated from the University of Alabama. Estate planning for business and timberland owners is an area of particular experience. Mr. Barclay has a strong interest in minimizing estate and gift taxes and maintaining family wealth. He works with family businesses challenged with governance, succession and retirement planning (how to work at the family business and still have lunch together on Sunday). He is a frequent speaker and seminar leader on timber business and income and estate tax issues.

TURNEY P. BERRY – Turney Berry concentrates his practice in the areas of estate planning, fiduciary matters, and charitable planning. Mr. Berry is Chair of Wyatt, Tarrant & Combs’ Trusts, Estates & Personal Planning Service Team and a past member of the firm’s Executive Committee. Mr. Berry is active in the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC), currently serving as Chair of the Estate & Gift Committee and State Chair for Kentucky, and is a past Regent of the College, former President of the ACTEC Foundation, and previous chair of the Charitable and Tax Exempt Committee. As a Uniform Law Commissioner, Mr. Berry currently serves as Chair of the drafting committee for the Uniform Fiduciary Income and Principal Act (a revision of the principal and income acts), Vice-Chair of the Drafting Committee on Electronic Wills Act, and a member of theDrafting Committee to Regulate the Management of Funds Raised Through Crowdfunding Efforts. A native of Tennessee, Mr. Berry received his B.A. and B.L.S. in 1983 from the University of Memphis and his J.D. in 1986 from Vanderbilt University.

CASSADY V. BREWER – Cass Brewer, associate professor of law, teaches Basic Federal Income Taxation, Nonprofit Organizations, Taxation of Business Organizations, Partnership Taxation, and the Law of Social Enterprise. His research primarily focuses upon the legal and tax aspects of the intersection of taxexempt, nonprofit organizations with for-profit enterprises and commercial activity. In particular, Brewer writes and speaks extensively on the legal and tax aspects of the emerging “hybrid” business forms such as the benefit corporation and the low-profit limited liability company. Brewer received his LL.M. (Taxation) from New York University, where he served as graduate editor of the Tax Law Review. He is a graduate of the University of Arkansas School of Law, where he was editor-in-chief of the Arkansas Law Review. He received his undergraduate degree from Vanderbilt University.
CAROLINE D. CIRAULO – Caroline Ciraolo, former Acting Assistant Attorney General of the U.S. Department of Justice’s Tax Division, is a partner with Kostelanetz & Fink and a founder of its Washington, D.C. office. Her practice focuses on complex and sophisticated civil tax controversies, including representation in sensitive audits, administrative appeals, and litigation in federal and state courts and tax tribunals, providing related tax advice, including advice on uncertain tax positions, financial reporting, claims for refund, amended returns, voluntary disclosures, and internal investigations, and representing individuals and institutions in criminal tax investigations and prosecutions.

JEREMIAH W. DOYLE, IV – Jere Doyle is an estate planning strategist for BNY Mellon's Private Wealth Management group and a Senior Vice President of Bank of New York Mellon. He has been with the firm since 1981. Mr. Doyle provides high net worth individuals and families throughout the country with integrated wealth management advice on how to hold, manage and transfer their wealth in a tax efficient manner. He is the editor and co-author of Preparing Fiduciary Income Tax Returns, a contributing author of Preparing Estate Tax Returns, a contributing author of Understanding and Using Trusts, a contributing author of Drafting Irrevocable Trusts in Massachusetts, all published by Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education, a reviewing editor of the 1041 Deskbook published by Practitioner's Publishing Company and a contributing columnist for Estate Planning Review – The Journal published by Commerce Clearing House. Mr. Doyle is a lecturer in law in the Graduate Tax Program at Boston University School of Law teaching courses in Exempt Organizations, Tax Aspects of Charitable Giving, and Tax Aspects of Marital Dissolution.

CHARLES D. FOX, IV – Skip Fox is a partner in the Charlottesville office of McGuireWoods LLP and chair of the firm's Tax and Employee Benefits Department. Mr. Fox concentrates his practice in estate planning, estate administration, trust law, and charitable organizations. Mr. Fox has been on the faculty of the American Bankers Association's National Trust School and National Graduate Trust School since 1987. He was an Adjunct Professor at Northwestern University School of Law where he taught from 1983 to 2005 and has been an Adjunct Professor at the University of Virginia School of Law since 2006. He speaks extensively around the country on estate planning topics and is the co-presenter of the long-running monthly teleconference series on estate planning and fiduciary law issues sponsored by the American Bankers Association. Mr. Fox has contributed articles to numerous publications and is a regular columnist for the ABA Trust Newsletter on tax matters. He is the author or co-author of seven books on estate planning topics. Mr. Fox is a Fellow and President-Elect of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel.

JOE W. GARRETT, JR. – Joe Garrett is an attorney in the Commissioner's Office of the Alabama Department of Revenue where he serves as Deputy Commissioner of Revenue. His primary responsibility is to help shape the Department's business tax policy through the Department's legislative, regulatory, audit and litigation functions. Before joining the Department, Mr. Garrett was a manager with PricewaterhouseCooper's state and local tax group in Atlanta, Georgia where he worked as a state tax consultant after graduating from the University of Florida College of Law's graduate tax program in 1998. He is a member of both the Georgia and Alabama Bar associations and a regular speaker at state and local tax conferences.
JAMES E. LONG, JR. – Jimmy Long is a partner in the multistate law firm of Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP and chair of the firm’s SALT Practice Group. He holds an LL.M. in Taxation from the New York University School of Law, and is currently chair of the Tax Incentive Subcommittee of the ABA State and Local Tax Committee. Mr. Long assists clients with state and local tax compliance and controversy matters, including income, franchise and transactional taxes. In addition, Mr. Long has an active economic development practice in the area of tax incentives and credits, with particular emphasis on federal and state new markets tax credits and historic rehabilitation credits. He has represented businesses in state and local tax controversies throughout each stage of the proceeding, including before the Alabama Tax Tribunal, Alabama circuit courts, Alabama appellate courts and the U.S. Supreme Court.

BRUCE A. MCGOVERN – Bruce McGovern is a tenured member of the faculty and an Associate Dean at Houston College of Law. He received his undergraduate degree from Columbia University and his law degree from Fordham University School of Law. After law school, he served as a judicial clerk for Judge Thomas Meskill on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in New York. He then practiced law with the law firm of Covington & Burling in Washington, D.C. He subsequently earned an LL.M. in Taxation from the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where he taught as a visiting faculty member before joining the faculty at Houston College of Law. Professor McGovern teaches and writes in the areas of business organizations and taxation.
