PROFESSIONALLY SPEAKING

Bama at Work is taking the hit workshop, Professionally Speaking, on the road!

Delivered by expert faculty from The University of Alabama College of Communication. The program will draw motivated, high-achieving professionals looking to improve their speaking and presenting skills. Geared towards the business world, this is an excellent venue to share your products or services with an upwardly mobile professional audience. We're offering several sponsorship packages designed to get your business the most exposure possible.
